This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE CITY LIBRARY.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

ESTABLISHED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

ORGANIZATION AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD.

ARTICLE 1.

SECT. 1. The Mayor of the city shall be President of the Board of Trustees.

SECT. 2. When he is absent a presiding officer shall be chosen for the meeting.

SECT. 3. The Clerk shall preside while such choice is making.

SECT. 4. In the absence of both President and Clerk any member may call the meeting to order and preside at the choice of a presiding officer.

ARTICLE 2.

SECT. 1. The Board shall have a Clerk, who shall be one of their own number, and three Standing Committees, each to consist of three members, to wit—

On the Library,
On the Building,
On Accounts;

All to be chosen at the first meeting in the year or at any subsequent meeting if a choice is not then made.

SECT. 2. Vacancies can be filled at any meeting.

All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President.

ARTICLE 3.

SECT. 1. The first meeting in the year shall be on the next Saturday after the election of the Trustees, which meeting shall be called by the City Messenger under the direction of the Mayor as President of the Board.

SECT. 2. Meetings shall be held on the first Saturday of every month.

SECT. 3. Notice of all meetings shall be sent to the residence of each member by the City Messenger, under the direction of the Clerk.

SECT. 4. Special meetings shall be called by the clerk upon the request of any member.

SECT. 5. A majority shall be a quorum.

ARTICLE 4.

SECT. 1. The Records and papers of the Board shall be in the possession of the Clerk subject to its order.

SECT. 2. In the Clerk's absence the President shall appoint a substitute.

ARTICLE 5.

SECT. 1. The Standing Committee on the Library shall, under the direction of the Board,

Purchase all books;
Subscribe for all periodicals;
Direct in relation to the binding of books and their preparation for use;
Provide all necessary books and blanks for the use of the Librarian;
Make an annual examination of the Library and report its condition;
Prepare the Annual Report to the City Council; and Direct the Librarian as to what books shall not be allowed to be taken from the Library.

SECT. 2. The Standing Committee on the Building shall have charge of the rooms, the direction and oversight of all their fixtures and furniture and their cleaning, warming, lighting and ventilation.

SECT. 3. The Standing Committee on Accounts shall examine and certify all bills, and none shall be allowed not thus certified.

SECT. 4. The Standing Committees shall conform to all the directions of the Board, and shall not order any outlay exceeding twenty dollars without such directions.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE 6.

WHEN OPEN.

SECT. 1. The Library shall be opened every day, Sundays, New Year's Day and Christmas and the Legal Holidays excepted.

SECT. 2. From April to August, both inclusive, from 8 o'clock A. M. to 1 o'clock P. M., from 3 o'clock to 6 o'clock and from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock P. M.

SECT. 3. During the other months, from 10 o'clock A. M. to 1 o'clock P. M. and from 3 to 6 and from 7 to 9 o'clock P. M.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF VISITORS.

SECT. 4. All persons resident in New Bedford, of 16 years of age and upwards, shall have the right to visit the rooms, and to use therein the books, periodicals, &c., subject to such regulations and restrictions as the Committee on the Library may from time to time institute with the approbation of the Board.

SECT. 5. Measures shall be taken to guard against loss or damage by reason of such use of the Library property, and to insure quiet and decorum in all the rooms.

SECT. 6. A failure to meet any pecuniary liability, or to conform to the rules, shall be considered a forfeiture of the right to the use of the library property in any form.

SECT. 7. Strangers, introduced by a Trustee or a member of the City Council, may be allowed the privileges of residents for four weeks.

SECT. 8. The Reading-room set apart for females shall be used exclusively by them, but no book or periodical shall be kept in such room when not in use, except it may be a duplicate or intended expressly for such room.

CIRCULATION OF BOOKS.

SECT. 9. Books may be taken from the Library by all resident adults.

SECT. 10. A delivery upon the order of a resident shall be considered a delivery to him in person.

SECT. 11. All orders for books shall name the person to receive them, and the books shall be delivered to no other. There shall be an order for each delivery.

SECT. 12. Minors 16 years old or upward, resident in the city, may be allowed the rights of adults as takers of books, by filing with the Librarian a certificate signed by their parent or guardian or some other responsible person, also a resident, by which the signer shall become to the same extent responsible for said minor as he would be for himself. A deposit to the full value of the volume called for or of the set to which it belongs may take the place of such certificate.

SECT. 13. All persons having the right to take books shall, before exercising such right, enter into an obligation in writing that they will observe all the Rules and Regulations instituted for the government and safety of the Library, which obligation shall be in such form as the Committee on the Library shall direct, care being taken that it shall recognize a pecuniary obligation on the part of such taker to the City of New Bedford for all fines, forfeitures, loss or damage.

SECT. 14. No person shall be allowed to take a book from the Library, who appears by the records to be accountable for a book taken or for a fine or forfeiture imposed.

SECT. 15. Books intended for general circulation shall be properly covered, lettered and numbered, having on the outside a label, stating the time it may be kept and the fines for retaining it longer.

SECT. 16. All the books, as well as the periodicals, manuscripts, &c., shall be stamped with the words, the number being written on the inside of the cover.

NEW BEDFORD CITY LIBRARY,

SECT. 17. All the books of the Library shall be prepared for general circulation, except such as the trustees shall order to be kept in the rooms.

SECT. 18. One volume only can be taken at one time.

SECT. 19. No book can be retaken unless returned to the Library.

SECT. 20. Books taken can be used in the family of the taker only.

SECT. 21. All books taken may be retained two weeks unless a shorter time is named on the cover.

SECT. 22. A book returned may be retaken unless an application for it has been made to the Librarian in writing.

SECT. 23. The Committee on the Library may order a new book to be retained in the rooms for a short time after its purchase, and they may, if they shall think proper, shorten the time it may be kept out.

SECT. 24. Every person entitled to take books from the library shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, having on it the name of the applicant and the catalogue number of the book asked for in blanks left for the purpose, and this card must be presented to the Librarian or his assistant as the only mode of obtaining any book that may be wanted. If any book is not in, the card may be returned to the applicant, that another number may be inserted.

SECT. 25. Books returned must be delivered to the Librarian or his assistant.

SECT. 26. The fines for retaining books beyond the allowed period shall be as follows, viz.:

Folio, four cents a day,
Quarto, three cents,
Octavo, two cents,
All smaller books, 1 cent;

And for books damaged or lost, the actual loss sustained.

SECT. 27. All holders of books beyond the regulation period shall be required to pay the expense of sending for the same, and it shall be the duty of the Librarian to send for all books held two weeks beyond the allowed time, and if not then delivered they shall be considered as lost.

SECT. 28. Books not intended for general circulation may be taken from the Library for a limited period upon an order in writing signed by a trustee, a receipt being given by the taker therefor.

ARTICLE 7.

LIBRARIAN AND ASSISTANT.

SECT. 1. The Librarian and Assistant Librarian shall hold their respective offices during the pleasure of the Trustees, and shall receive such compensation as the board shall allow, payable quarterly.

SECT. 2. These appointments shall be made at the first meeting of the Trustees in the year, but if not then made, at any subsequent meeting.

SECT. 3. The Librarian shall have the custody of all the property in the Library rooms, and shall be accountable to the Trustees for the same. It shall be his duty to prepare the books for circulation, make all necessary records, prepare catalogues when required, and do all things which may be necessary for the preservation of the property and the convenience of the visitors to the rooms and the takers of books.

SECT. 4. The Assistant Librarian shall perform such duties as the Librarian may direct, and in his absence shall have charge of the Library.

ARTICLE 8.

DONATIONS.

SECT. 1. A record shall be kept of all donations and mention shall be made of them in the Annual Report.

SECT. 2. All books presented to the Library shall have the name of the donor placed upon them.

ARTICLE 9.

These rules and regulations may be amended at any meeting at which five trustees shall be present if four shall vote in favor of the amendment proposed; or at any meeting, if notice in writing shall have been given to each member of the board of the change proposed, and four votes are given in its favor.

CATALOGUE.

A star (*) prefixed to a title denotes that the work is not to be taken from the Library, except by special permission of the Trustees.
